FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA ATTEND REGIONAL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Lancaster High School Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) members competed at Hillsboro High School on Saturday, February 7th. While at the conference members attended an opening session by guest speaker Laura Daniels who talked to students about “life hacks” and then competed in their events. FBLA has over sixty events from members to choose from. Students can take a written test on business topics or give a presentation on various subjects. Students prepare for this day by studying and taking practice exams.

Students who place in the top 3 in their event earn the right to compete at the State Leadership Conference. This year’s State Leadership Conference is being held in La Crosse, WI on April 13 & 14.

Kyla Vaughan campaigned for Region IV Vice President and was elected. This honor comes with the opportunity to serve on the State Executive Board and represent our region.

This leadership role comes with the responsibility to host the 2015-2016 Regional Leadership Conference at Lancaster High School.
