BOARD COMMITTEES

There are five standing committees operating within the Board of Education. These are the finance, policy, transportation, building and grounds, and personnel committees. Committee appointments are made by the Board President subject to acceptance by the individual Board members. The Board President may appoint ad hoc (for a particular purpose) committees from time to time.

Committee meetings shall be called by the committee chairperson. No committee shall meet unless a majority of the membership can be present.

Public notice shall be given for all committee meetings in accordance with state law and established procedures.
