The Summer Coding Camps at UW-Platteville are a fun and engaging way to learn from computer science, cybersecurity and software engineering experts. All three exciting camps are hosted on the UW-Platteville campus. Each event is open to entering high school freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors.

- Computer Games Programming (Wed 6/8-Fri 6/10). Learn computer science concepts and programming in Python by designing computer games. Instructor: Dr. Afzal Upal.
- Cyber Defense (Mon 8/15-Fri 8/19) Learn how hackers attack computer systems so that you can defend yourself and others. Instructor: Dr. Bassam Zahran
- Hackathon (Sat 8/20). Compete with other students for up to $5,000 in scholarship to study Cybersecurity at UW-Platteville. All students from the Cyber Defense camp will be automatically registered in the Hackathon. Those who're not taking part in Cyber Defense camp must register for this event.

Please visit <https://www.uwplatt.edu/summer-coding-camps> to reserve a spot in the camps and for more information.

Information for Southwest Tech's summer nursing assistant courses is now available on our website at: Nursing Assistant offered at Southwest Tech \(swtc.edu\). Please share this with any students who may be interested in taking the course this summer. Two session options will be offered starting on June 1 and June 27. Theory will be online and lab skills will take place on campus during the first 3 weeks. It is planned for clinical to once again take place through a long-term care facility in the communities. It is expected that students will need to be COVID vaccinated or be able to obtain a waiver/exception from a facility.

Please note that Start College Now does not apply to summer courses, but students may take the course through the CESA #3 Youth Apprenticeship Program. Please connect with Tom Martin or Chuck Keller at CESA for the application for any students who may want to participate through YA.

If you or your students have any questions on the summer Nursing Assistant course, please feel free to contact the instructor, Jill Henry, at jhenry@swtc.edu.
