PROFESSIONAL STAFF NEGOTIATIONS

The Lancaster Education Association, an affiliate of the Wisconsin Education Association, is recognized as the official bargaining group for teaching employees of the Lancaster Community School District. The negotiating team of the Association meets with the personnel committee of the Board of Education to reach agreement on wages, hours and conditions of employment for the subsequent school year(s).

Any agreement reached between the Association bargaining team and the personnel committee must be approved by the Association and the Board before it becomes effective.

Salaries and other conditions of employment are written in the Teacher's Salary Schedule for the school year under consideration.
