ELECTIVE COURSES

Students who take the minimum courses necessary for college admission are minimally prepared for success in college when they get there. Colleges expect you to struggle in some courses at the collegiate level. Taking courses that challenge you in high school allows you to develop one of the most crucial skills necessary for success in college and life . . . the ability to face adversity and still succeed.

TIP – Look at college catalogs to see what courses are required to earn degrees in programs that interest you.

Remember to stay well-rounded and continue with your interests outside of the core academic areas.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Course descriptions are available at the Lancaster High School website.
